

ONE MINUTE SCRIPT 1 - SCARY

Sam – aged 15, Jo – aged 16

(we see the two friends walking into a clearing in a wood. Jo is leading and stops. It's evening and the light is very low and gloomy)

Sam: Here?

Jo: I think so

Sam: Okay. Now we're here, what do we do?

Jo: Shh! You need to be quiet.

Sam: Oh okay (long pause) Look, there's nothing here. Just trees and that. Nothing else.

Jo: And you have to be patient.

Sam: Well it's cold –

Jo: Shh!!

Sam: Bloody freezing in fact. Look – you can see my breath (she breathes out) See?

Jo: Yeah well that usually means they're close.

Sam: Who? (realizing) Oh yeah! Shit! That's what happens, doesn't it?

Jo: The area around them gets cold – just like it is now. It means they're very near...

Sam: (scared and excited) Are we going to see something, do you think?

Jo: Perhaps. If we're quiet...

Sam: Yes – sorry.

Jo: (calling out) Is there anybody there? (silence) Can you hear me?

They both listen. It's silent.

Sam: I can't see anything. (pause) Can you?

Jo: (calling) Anyone there?

Sam: (pause) Nothing.

Jo: (suddenly startled) Wait – wait. What's that?

Sam: What's what?

Jo: Didn't you hear it – listen....

Both listen. There is a definite noise. They both jump.

Sam: I can't see anything! (she sees something in front of her. She stares, her eyes wide open. She speaks slowly) OH MY GOD!
